- (4) The ACRs submitted by the reporting authority shall be made available to the concerned Reviewing authority by 15th May.
- (5) The reviewing authority may record his remark on the said report as early as possible. The Accepting authority may record its remark as early as possible on the confidential roll and may accept it, with such modifications as may be considered necessary and counter-sign the roll.

Note: Every endeavour shall be made by the authorities in early finalization of confidential report so as to enable the authority to communicate the final concluded confidential report to the member of service on or before the 1st of August.

8. Communication of the Confidential Rolls.--The confidential report shall be communicated by the High Court to the concerned Judicial Officer stating entries about the adverse remarks, advisory remarks and grade within fifteen days of the remarks accepted by the accepting authority.

9. Representation against adverse remarks.--A member of the service may represent to the High Court against the remarks communicated to him under Clause 8 within 15 days of the date of its receipt by him.

Provided that the High Court may entertain a representation within one month of the expiry of the said period if it is satisfied that the Member of Service had sufficient cause for not submitting his/her representation in time.

10. Consideration of representation.-(1) The High Court may consider the representation made under Clause 9 made by a Member of Service and pass order as far as possible within two months from the date of submission of the representation.

“(1.1) Prior to placing the representations before the High Court for consideration, the representations be initially placed before the concerned Portfolio Judge for comments and thereafter, the representations along with the comments of the concerned Portfolio Judge, if so received, be placed before the concerned Committee for finalization.”

(2) Order passed under sub-clause (1) shall be communicated to the concerned officer by the Registrar General within 15 days from the date of such order.

11. General

The High Court may issue such instructions not inconsistent with these regulations as it may consider necessary, with regard to the writing of confidential rolls, the maintenance of the confidential rolls and the effect of the confidential rolls.

12. Interpretation.-If any question arises as to interpretation of these regulations, the decision of the High Court shall be final.

13. Amendment: -The High Court may make amendment in these regulations as may be deemed necessary.

 Para II of Regulation 11 deleted vide Registry's Notification No. 3460/Rules/2016 dated 28/04/2016.

 Para I0(1.1) of Regulation 10 inserted vide Registry's Endorsement No. 5406/Rules/2024 dated 02/04/2024.

14. Power to relax: -Where the High Court is satisfied that the operation of any of these regulations causes undue hardship in any particular case or class, it may for the reasons to be recorded in writing dispense with or relax the particular regulations to such extent and subject to such exception and condition as may be deemed necessary.

15. Repeal and Saving: -Any order, resolution, direction, notification, if any, is in force immediately before the commencement of these regulations are hereby repealed or restrained as the case may be in respect of the matters covered by these regulations provided that any order made or action taken under the orders, resolutions, guidelines and notifications so repealed shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of these regulations.
